Dress Code

We don't do the standard glitzy, black-tie dinners. Our dress code is 'freshly-eco'. So dress up in your finest fair-fashion. Be it sustainable cotton, upcycled or handed down, we ask our delegates to try and wear something colourful with a conscience. Most people will be in formal attire, but we don't mind casual if it's eco-friendly! We did this for the first time in 2017, and it made the event a very relaxed but well-dressed affair.
